

The Noodles & Company Foundation is here to support our team members when they need it most. We understand that many of our team members are not able to work their schedules as originally expected, resulting in less take-home pay. If you are impacted by this, and it will result in a financial hardship where you are not able to pay your essential living expenses (rent/mortgage, utilities, food), please email the following to foundation@noodles.com to request grant money:

Name:

ID:

Email:

Phone Number:

Location # & Name:

Hours Lost (include dates):

Expected PTO/Sick Pay:

Please explain what essential living expenses this grant will be used for (please note Rent/Mortgage, utilities, food are considered essential):

Do you approve the Foundation to access your direct deposit account to deposit any grant money?

Thank you for your dedication to Noodles during this uncertain and unprecedented time. We are doing our best to live our We Care value to support you and your family. We will try to respond to each email within 24 hours.

There may be additional resources available to you outside of Noodles based on your location and position – reference this site for more information
